Catholic Campaign for Human Development: Today we take up a collection that helps fight poverty at its roots. For 40 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has provided funding for groups that make lasting change and uplift the poor in the United States. The collection has helped secure funding for low-income day care centers, programs that emphasize education, and affordable housing in low-income neighborhoods. It has contributed to efforts to implement laws that enforce fair wages. Fight poverty in America. Defend human dignity. Give to the CCHD Collection.

Our new Communications Committee needs your help, if you are a

who can help us create a bank of photos that will be appropriate for parish use.

Are you able to:

- Attend major parish events, functions, and services for the purpose of building our photo database.
- Assume the role of parish photographer for any major functions of individual parish ministries, for example, various ministries have Christmas parties for their own members.
- Submit all photos in a digital format.
- Edit and crop all photos to assure maximum quality.
- Obtain signed release forms from all subjects, as necessary, and submit forms to central database along with photos.

If you can volunteer, please call Linda Riley at 781-233-4886. We also need videographers, bloggers, tweeters, and writers/editors.

Faith Sharing:

Fr. Dan's Faith Sharing Group will resume meeting on November 17th at 1:30 p.m.

Free Catholic Publications: The Catholic Digest Company has distributed free November 2011 issues to parishes that requested them; therefore, a limited number of issues are available for the taking at the entrances to Blessed Sacrament and St. Margaret's Churches. Also, The Word Among Us publications will be available each month on an on-going basis. The parishes pay for these as a service to our parishioners. Each monthly issue features Mass readings, daily meditations, and personal stories that witness to one's Catholic faith put into action. Surveys have shown that for many Catholic adults, their faith education has not grown since the time of their confirmation. These booklets are excellent resources to enhance one's faith. It is better that they end up in your recycling container at the end of the month than in ours for a lack of want.

Hat and Mitten Drive: Starting this weekend, November 5 and 6, St. Margaret's St. Vincent de Paul Society will be holding its annual HAT AND MITTEN DRIVE. This drive will be running the entire month of November. All hats and mittens will be given to area shelters. With winter fast approaching, the need is always great. A bin will be at the Belmonte Middle School on Sunday, November 6 only and at the entrance of the church every day in November. We thank you for your generosity at all our drives.

Saint Margaret Grand Annual: A total of $12,915. has been collected so far for St. Margaret's Grand Annual collection. We would like to thank everyone who donated so far to this year's Grand Annual Collection for St. Margaret. Please be assured that all funds remain at St. Margaret for the exclusive use for the upkeep and maintenance of our property.

Welcoming the Third Roman Missal: We have been talking periodically about the new translations for the Mass due to be instituted in the United States on the first Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011. In order to get a head start on various aspects of the Mass, our parishes will begin using the new translation for the Gloria and the Nicene Creed on the weekend of November 12/13. While the new missals will not be available in the pews until the fourth Sunday of Advent, there will be an ample supply of laminated cards featuring the new translations for these familiar prayers. Please use them. The Gloria and Nicene Creed follow below.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Gloria has its origin in the hymn of praise sung by the angels at Jesus' birth when they appeared to the shepherds in the field at night. The angels sang, "Glory to God on the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will" (Lk 2:14).

The angels' hymn was elaborated by early Christians and its present Latin form, as above, is first recorded in the 4th Century though most of it can be traced to the 3rd, 2nd, or even 1st Century. As such, this is one of the oldest prayers of the Mass and by saying it we are uniting ourselves with almost the entire history of Christianity.

The words in bold print indicate the parts of the text that are changed in the new translation. While the changes are slight they are nonetheless continual through almost the entire text. The overall change, however, is in the structure and rhythm of the text which will enable us to re-connect with the format that has been used by the Church for almost our entire history.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(All bow during these three lines)
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake
he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds
from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic
and apostolic Church.
I confess one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
